

WOW!

FRIDAY FEATURE
BY OLIVER BOWDEN YR 11

Have you heard?

Mr Beevor has been keeping busy with his lovely bunch of year 7 students during after school club. Well done to all the students who cut, sanded, drilled, and painted their way to creating their very own Dasher, Dancer, Comet, Cupid, Donner, Blitzen, or Ruddle! Mr Beevor's year 7 D+T club will continue in January. Please sign up after school as places are strictly limited to 10!

Oh Christmas tree, oh Christmas tree!

How lovely are these baubles?

Miss Barnard has started a new tradition with her ks4, yr.11 students. Bought as a large batch, these this wooden baubles have been transformed into one of a kind Christmas decorations. AMAZING

Stanborough's got talent!

This issue's extra special shout out goes to

Year 11 Textiles. Well done for creating some really detailed and creative pieces in response to your themes!

In eastern cultures the Lotus represents life, death, and hope as the flower seems to have a fascinating will to live and a life cycle unlike any other plant - blooming after submerging itself into murky water each night. This wondrous flower has been beautifully represented and explored by Natalie Saunders. Well done!

Charlotte Delhanty has explored flora and human organs through texture and colour with a beautiful mixed media piece! I can't see what you girls make next!

-Artist Rooms-

DEAR YEAR 8 STUDENTS, IF YOUR WORK HAS BEEN ON DISPLAY IN MISS CARTER'S WINDOW THEN IT IS NOW AVAILABLE TO COLLECT FROM A5 AFTER SCHOOL. ALL WORK MUST BE COLLECTED BY FRIDAY 15TH OR IT WILL HAVE TO BE BINNED. UNFORTUNATELY WE DON'T HAVE THE STORAGE SPACE TO KEEP EVERYTHING!

Painting your feelings:

Well done to students who have emailed me their abstract works in response to the prompt words adjacent. Well done to Rebecca Saunders! I can't believe how many words you have attempted so far!

I love seeing students being creative outside of the classroom. If you've not had chance to have a go yet then there's still time. Choose a word and respond in your own style! It can be realistic or something more strange!

Make sure you email hcarter@stanborough with your submissions and use the hashtag #abstractadvent2020
