'A Day with Picasso' by Billy Kluver

‘Art is eternal, but life is short’. Reading is important to build your literacy and find out more about art and artists. Picasso is a well-known artist, so why not find out more information to understand why Picasso made the artwork he did!

Is a TikTick Famous Statue of Virgin Mary Really Crying?

Scientists have offered their own explanations for this surprising phenomenon.

Visitors were shocked and moved when a statue of the virgin Mary appeared to shed real tears. The event has been dubbed a “miracle”, but is there a more scientific explanation?

An expert in chemistry believes that the statue is actually filled with water that is slowly emitted because the statue is made of a porous material.
